Advertisers Are Responsible For Their Own Ad Content

Issue #209

Greetings from Colleen's Corner!

I have not seen any new programs that excite me since the 30-Day Success Formula. I am not looking for anything that requires monthly shipments of health products currently. I am always interested in new programs, so I encourage you to forward information to me.

Summer is fast approaching, and some folks take the time off. This means less competition for your advertising and a good reason to continue a serious advertising schedule during this time.

There is a man who may send you a copy of a money order receipt saying he ordered something from you and did not receive it. Request he send you a copy of the front and back cashed money order with your endorsement on it. He may just write and say you forget to put his ad in your ad sheet and send you a copy of the ad to "replace" it. Be careful and always take steps to protect yourself.

Just a reminder to you that we cannot place advertising on a certain page. Many advertisers want the second page, but we don't have enough second pages. So, to be fair, we place ads where we can.

One subscriber wrote telling me he had moved twice and wanted me to send him back issues of each issue he missed. It is everyone's responsibility to let me know if you change your address. The post office does not forward standard mail. So, if you don't alert us to your change of address the post office tosses the issues. Thus, you lose money as we do not replace them at our expense.

Each issue is limited to 144 pages total by the printing company. So far, we've only come close a few times to going over that number and holding advertising for next issue.

If you are worried about your advertising being printed simply go online to www.ShoreToShore.biz and check. The past issues are available online as a courtesy and many of our readers are happy to go online rather than get printed issues.

Please take care when sending in your full-page advertising. You MUST leave a ¼ inch margin on all sides for our equipment to properly scan it. Also take care to send advertising that is straight on the page. We print what we receive as camera ready. I know it is easy to get anxious about a deadline, but a few extra minutes will assure your advertising is the best it can be for your business.

You would not believe how many people want a FREE issue of this magazine each month. It can be seen FREE at www.ShoreToShore.biz otherwise there is a fee if you want a printed issue. The cost of postage, printing and assorted labor charges prohibits free mailings.

I have been very happy with several programs and you will see full page flyers in this issue. I encourage you to review them. There will be a new stamp program coming out next month that I hope excites everyone who wants FREE postage and a bonus. All details will be revealed in the next issue.

Remember if you write to a dealer with questions please send an LSASE. It is common courtesy and good business. If you don't want a reply, then just don't bother sending an LSASE.

If you have a computer, you may find submitting and paying for your ads very easy by going to www.ChaSvc.com You can upload your pdf and pay via PayPal. Quite a few of our advertisers have found this very effective and know their advertising will be here before the deadline. The site will not take huge files unfortunately. I always reply with confirmation when I receive it. If you don't get one, please email me at chaleena@msn.com

I am not responsible for anyone's ads other than my own. If you have a problem, please write or call the dealer. Always be courteous.

The next deadlines are noon May 24th and June 25th at noon. Remember, these deadlines are carved in stone – which, as you know, is very firm.

Until next time,

Colleen H Kennedy
